

DDTAL Course Fees 2011-12

The fees for DDTAL comprise of:-

- An assessment fee payable to Trinity College London (payable for all four units)
- A fee for training days for each unit (for first three units only)
- A fee for mentoring for each unit (payable for all units)

Fees can be paid unit by unit and are payable in advance of the unit.

Swindon Dance offers two pathways to the Diploma in Dance Teaching and Learning (Children and Young People) (DDTAL (CYP))

Taught and mentored- this comprises of approx. ten training days at weekends, for each of the first 3 units and candidates are supported through on line mentoring/ feedback from course leader. The 4th unit is a mentored only. (See course calendar)

Mentored only – Students will receive online mentoring /feedback only for all for units. The mentored route is suitable only for students with extensive current experience in the sector. However all students are strongly advised to take unit 1 as taught and mentored in order to gain maximum benefits from the course study.

Swindon Dance is both a DDTAL course provider as well as a Trinity Registered Centre. All fees are payable to Swindon Dance who are then responsible for payment of assessment fee to Trinity College London (TCL) as well as submission of course work on your behalf.
