

SWINDON DANCE

Level 6 Diploma in Dance Pedagogy (DDP)

Course Outline

Swindon Dance is excited to offer the new -look Level 6 Diploma in Dance Pedagogy (DDP) from October 2017.

This exciting teaching qualification is approved by ISTD and Swindon Dance will be the first centre to run the qualification outside of ISTD. The course is being designed in consultation with Alison Becket B Ed (Hons), M Ed. Alison trained in classical ballet and was the vice principle of Northern School of Contemporary Dance for 17 years. She has been responsible for dance teacher training for the BBO and ISTD since 2003.

Please see below more information about the course and qualification:

Benefits

- Completing the Level 6 Diploma in Dance Pedagogy will provide you with a regulated qualification that is widely recognised as the equivalent of an undergraduate degree.
- UK DDP graduates are eligible to apply for Qualified Teacher Status (QTLS), meaning you can be employed within the state funded education sector on qualified teacher pay scales.
- Graduates can progress to a Masters in Professional Practice at Middlesex University or the ISTD's prestigious Fellowship qualification.
- You can consider becoming an Approved Tutor for various units of the ISTD's initial teacher training qualifications.

Is the course right for me? The new-look Level 6 Diploma in Dance Pedagogy is designed for:

- Current and ex-professional dancers, seeking to transition into a teaching career
- Unqualified teachers currently working in the vocational/further education sector
- Dance teachers with a level 4 (or equivalent) initial teaching qualification

Duration of the course:

The course runs part time and can be completed in 2 years. Candidates would have 5 years to complete qualification after initial enrolment.

Entry requirements:

- Level 4 dance teaching qualification
- Dance Degree or
- Significant professional dance experience

Learners do not need to have prior teaching experience but a regular teaching placement is required for the duration of the course.

Learners do not need to have an enhanced DBS disclosure when applying for this course but will need to get one before starting the course and ensure it is renewed every two years.

Course dates and location:

The Diploma in Dance Pedagogy will be delivered through lecture-based seminars and practical dance workshops at Swindon Dance.
