Level 6 Diploma in Pedagogy (DDP) Application Guide

To be read in conjunction with the Level 6 Diploma in Dance Pedagogy Syllabus.

Qualification Overview

The Level 6 Diploma in Dance Pedagogy qualification consists of five units and is delivered over 2 years as a part time course. Candidates will have up to 5 years from initial enrolment to complete the qualification. The course is non-syllabus based, allowing you room to broaden your teaching skills. Please refer to the syllabus for further details about the units. ISTD do offer additional options for unit 4 and 5, please inquire if you would like further information.

Studying for the Qualification

The programme of study will be personally tailored to meet your individual requirements. It has been designed to be varied in its delivery and includes intensive practical training courses, weekend lectures, group tutorials, personal study and peer learning. Each unit of the qualification also has its own unit handbook to give additional support and guidance. There are essential and recommended reading lists, which allow for a more rounded study of the subject. During Units 2 and 3, you will be assigned a personal mentor with allocated mentoring contact time as part of the programme of study. This is to support learning in Units 2 and 3. Support from your mentor may be face to face in the dance school environment, by telephone, Skype or email.

Entry Conditions

Applicants wishing to apply for this qualification need to have one of the following:

- Level 4 dance teaching qualification
- Dance Degree
- Significant professional dance experience

It should be noted that this is a teaching qualification for experienced dance teachers or professional dancers, who will be required to teach a group of students during the programme. Therefore, the minimum age for entry to the programme of study is 18.

Learners do not need to have prior teaching experience, but a regular teaching placement is required for the duration of the course. If you do not fulfil the entry requirements but feel you have the required knowledge or experience, you can apply for APEL to access this qualification. The Accreditation of Prior Experiential Learning (APEL) scheme takes account of your professional experience and unregulated qualifications.

Recognition of Prior Accreditation and Achievement

The application panel will recognise prior accreditation and achievement in order to ensure that applicants do not duplicate learning and assessment that has already been attained. This process takes account of certificated achievements; as long as they are of the relevant level for the unit, or above, and map to the learning outcomes and assessment criteria for that unit.

Duration and Venue

The programme is delivered part-time over a two-year period starting in October 2021. Delivery will take place at Swindon Dance, Swindon or via remote access. The timetable of delivery will be given to all successful applicants prior to the commencement of the programme. All training will be carried out by lecturers who are experts in their field.

Application Process

Applying to study the qualification

Please complete the Level 6 Diploma in Dance Pedagogy application form and submit to Jo Wilson at Swindon Dance DDP@swindondance.co.uk in time for the relevant closing date.

Languages available

Currently the qualification and programme of study is available in English only. Therefore, you need to be competent in this language to study this course. If English is not your first language and you have not completed degree level study in English, you will need to submit an IELTS certificate along with your application form. The International English Language Testing System (IELTS) is a test that measures the language proficiency of people who want to study or work in environments where English is used as a language of communication. An easy-to-use 9-band scale clearly identifies proficiency level, from non-user (band score 1) through to expert (band score 9). For this qualification Swindon Dance accepts the score of IELTS 6.5 (with minimum 6 in all components) in IELTS General Training test.

Protection of Children and Vulnerable Adults

As you will be teaching classes throughout the programme of study you are expected to have a valid, clear, enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) disclosure, or a disclosure relevant to your country. Note: Candidates do not need to have an Enhanced DBS disclosure when applying for this course but will need to get one before starting the course. If you are invited for an interview, please bring your Enhanced DBS disclosure to your interview, if you already hold one.
