

CHRISTINE EVANS

GTLC (HONS)

PRIMARY STEPS MUSICIAN

Christine trained at Trinity College of Music studying violin, piano and voice. During her final year, she won the prestigious Leonard Smith Duo Prize for strings and piano. Since graduation, she has had an active career as a soloist and chamber musician in performances that have taken her to Europe and Asia with various orchestras. She also worked as a pianist at the Arts Educational School.

As well as accompanying classes in Swindon for Primary Steps, Christine is currently teaching at Brockhurst and Marlston Preparatory School in Berkshire. She also plays for The Royal Ballet School's Junior Associates classes in Eastleigh and for The Royal Ballet School's Summer Programme at White Lodge, London.
