Background

Swindon Dance will not unfairly discriminate against any applicant for employment on the basis of conviction or other details revealed. Swindon Dance makes appointment decisions on the basis of merit and ability. If an applicant has a criminal record, this will not automatically bar them from employment within the Organisation. Each case will be decided on its merits in accordance with the objective assessment criteria set out below.

All positions within Swindon Dance are exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

All applicants must therefore declare all previous convictions, including those which would normally be considered "spent". A failure to disclose a previous conviction may lead to an application being rejected or, if the failure to disclose is discovered after employment has started, may lead to summary dismissal on the grounds of gross misconduct. A failure to disclose a previous conviction may also amount to a criminal offence.

It is unlawful for Swindon Dance to employ anyone who is barred from working with children and young people. It is a criminal offence for any person who is barred from working with children and young people to attempt to apply for a position at Swindon Dance.

Swindon Dance will make a report to the Police and/or the ISA if it:

- Receives an application from a barred person,
- Is provided with false information in, or in support of an application, and
- Has a serious concern about an applicant's suitability to work with children.

Assessment criteria

In the event that relevant information (whether in relation to previous convictions or otherwise) is volunteered by an applicant during the recruitment process or obtained through a disclosure check Swindon Dance will consider the following factors before reaching a recruitment decision:

- Whether the conviction or other matter revealed is relevant to the position in question,
- The seriousness of any offence or other matter revealed,
- The length of time since the offence or other matter occurred,
- Whether the applicant has a pattern of offending behaviour or other relevant matters,
- Whether the applicant's circumstances have changed since the offending behaviour or other relevant matters, and
- The circumstances surrounding the offence and the explanation(s) offered by the convicted person.

Swindon Dance will consider it a high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted at any time of any the following offences if the post involves regular contact with children:

- Murder, manslaughter, rape, other serious sexual offences, grievous bodily harm or other serious acts of violence,
- Cruelty to animals,
- Serious class A drug related offences, and
- Robbery, burglary, theft, deception or fraud.

Swindon Dance will consider it a high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted at any time of robbery, burglary, theft, deception or fraud if the post involves access to money or budget responsibility.

Swindon Dance will consider it a high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted of drink driving within the last ten years if the post involves some driving responsibilities.

Assessment procedure

In the event that relevant information (whether in relation to previous convictions or otherwise) is volunteered by an applicant during the recruitment process or obtained through a disclosure check, the Organisation will carry out a risk assessment by reference to the criteria set out above. The assessment form must be signed by either the Executive or Artistic Director or member of the Organisation's Board of Trustees before a position is offered.

Disputing a DBS disclosure

If an applicant wishes to dispute any information contained in a disclosure, they may do so by contacting the DBS direct. In cases where the applicant would otherwise be offered a position were it not for the disputed information, Swindon Dance will, where practicable, defer a final decision about the appointment until the applicant has had a reasonable opportunity to challenge the disclosure information.

Retention and security of disclosure information

Swindon Dance observes the guidance issued or supported by the DBS on the use of disclosure information but is under no obligation to do so. In particular, Swindon Dance will:

- Store disclosure information and other confidential documents issued by the DBS in locked, non-portable storage containers,
- Only allow access to stored information to members of the Organisation's senior management,
- Not retain disclosure information or any associated correspondence for longer than is necessary, and for a maximum of six months,

- Keep a record of the date of a disclosure, the name of the subject, type of disclosure, the position in question, the unique number issued by the DBS and the recruitment decision taken, and
- Ensure that any disclosure information is destroyed by suitably secure means such as shredding.

Swindon Dance complies with the provisions of the DBS code of practice, a copy of which is available on the DBS website.

Retention of records

If an applicant is appointed, Swindon Dance will retain any relevant information provided on their application form (together with any attachments) on their personnel file. If the application is unsuccessful, all documentation relating to the application will be confidentially destroyed after six months.

Queries

If an applicant has any queries on how to complete the application form or any other matter they should contact the staff member responsible for the recruitment of that role.
